I don't remember who I am or where I came from. All I remember is that you were always here with me. Here to catch me if I fall and dry my face when I decide to give it a bath with tears.

I remember nothing, but I remember you!

And I remember that I love you.

But I don't remember what love is. But it must be something good right? Since its got something to do with you? Show ne,! Show me love!
